On-Site Camp Discovery Presented by Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital to Take Place from July 6 – August 18 at MODS

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (June 18, 2020) – Give your child a S.A.F.E. (Science. Affordable. Fun. Educational.) and unforgettable summer STEM camp experience at the Museum of Discovery and Science (MODS). Camp Discovery, presented by Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital, is engineered for children ages 6 through 12 (entering grades 1–6). The Museum's on-site Camp Discovery will take place from July 6 through August 18. MODS provides the ultimate age-appropriate camp experience with interactive exploration, healthy choices/healthy lifestyle education and immersive learning opportunities that are safe, fun and challenging. From the Florida Everglades, to space, and even Hogwarts, there is something for every scientist, engineer, maker, muggle, wizard, chemist (slime guru!) and marine biologist.

Camp Discovery offers on-site camp at MODS from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. in a self-contained area of the Museum with designated restrooms for campers, individual STEM supply kits and daily health and safety protocol review. Before and after care are available from 9 a.m. -10 a.m. and 4 p.m. – 5 p.m. Weekly themes include Mars 2020, Solve It!, Hogwarts Summer School, Chillin' Like a Villain, Hogwarts Fantastic Beasts, Wet 'n Wild Florida and Mad Science: Time to Slime!

MODS offers a discount for pre-registration and multi-child discounts are available as well. Group size is limited to 10 campers to ensure physical distancing and an enjoyable experience. For more information, safety protocols, pricing and to register, please visit mods.org/camp. For questions, please email booking@mods.net or call 954.713.0930.
